BOOKS

	“Wolf Sanctuary” by Chuck Rineer (Hardback) - $26.49 Bring the spirit of the Wolves of Speedwell to your home with this captivating photography book by Chuck Rineer. See the hidden details of wolf life, follow the wolves through the seasons, and go behind-the-scenes of Wolf Sanctuary of PA.
	“In the Temple of Wolves: A Winter’s Immersion in Wild Yellowstone” by Rick Lamplugh (Paperback) - $14.79 When Rick Lamplugh arrives at the historic Lamar Buffalo Ranch on New Year’s Eve, he has one goal: to learn as much as possible about the ecology of the Lamar Valley. All winter he will work and live in this remote corner of Yellowstone National Park, home to some of the best wildlife watching in the world. He has three months to explore on skis and snowshoes, observe the wildlife, listen to and talk with experts.
	“One Wolf Howls” by Scotti Cohn, illustrated by Susan Detwiler (Paperback) - $11.00 Have you ever wondered what it would be like to be a wolf? What would you do in the cold winter months? Where would you sleep? What would you eat? Spend a year in the world of wolves in One Wolf Howls. This adventurous children’s book uses the months of the year and the numbers 1 through 12 to introduce children to the behavior of wolves in natural settings. (Recommended for Ages 5-8)
	“What’s the Difference? An Endangered Animal Subtraction Story” by Suzanne Slade, illustrated by Joan Waites (Paperback) - $9.49 In this book, you can celebrate the huge difference caring people make for endangered animals while you practice subtraction skills. Slade presents a new subtraction problem in each clever rhyming verse. Join in the celebration of our world's precious animals, and have fun practicing math skills along the way! (Recommended for Ages 3-9)
	“The Perfect Pet” by Samantha Bell (Paperback) - $10.55 After begging for a pet, a child’s mother finally says “yes.” But which animal will be the best pet? Using animal classification and habitat needs, the child narrows it down from Kingdom Animalia, through invertebrates to vertebrates. Reptiles and amphibians are out, and birds and fish are soon off the list. That leaves mammals, but which one? An elephant won't fit through the door, and a tiger would be too hard to walk. What's a child to do? (Recommended for Ages 3-10)

All listed prices include PA sales tax. Additional Shipping & Handling fees will apply.

Wolf Sanctuary of PA is a 501(c)(3) non-profit facility. All profits from gift shop sales go directly to the wolves.

	“Animal Helpers: Zoos” by Jennifer Keats Curtis (Paperback) - $10.55 Zoos are amazing places to see and learn about the many native and exotic of animals that inhabit this world. Some animals are plentiful while others are threatened or in danger of extinction. Zookeepers not only feed and care for these animals, they may also be helping to conserve and protect whole species through breeding and “head start” programs. Follow the extraordinary duties of these unusual animal helpers in this behind-the-scenes photographic journal. (Recommended for Ages 3-10)
	“Zoobooks: Wolves” (Magazine) - $4.23 Wolves have varied reputations--as cowardly thieves, as loyal packmates, as fairy tale villains. See what real characteristics these survivors have in common with the domestic dog--and what traits are uniquely their own. (Recommended for Ages 6-12) “Zoobooks: Bats” (Magazine) - $4.23 Have you ever heard that bats are blind? Do not believe it. This book dispels this and other myths about the only flying mammal on earth. (Recommended for Ages 6-12)
	“Wolf: A Freedom Story” by Tom Lang (Paperback) - $8.43 To save their species from aerial hunting in Alaska, a group of alpha wolves learn to act as domestic dogs and go undercover until the killings stop. One wolf ends up in a home in a small, coastal town in Southeast Alaska. Everything is fine until he falls for a local female canine.
	Wolf Sanctuary of PA Coloring Book - $13.77 Features illustrations of the Wolves of Speedwell created by our volunteers! Children and adults alike can enjoy coloring the beautiful designs and famous quotes about wolves found within the pages of this exclusive Wolf Sanctuary of PA book.
